

Credential custody and the non-exporting sink

Model-visible data must never contain downstream credential material.

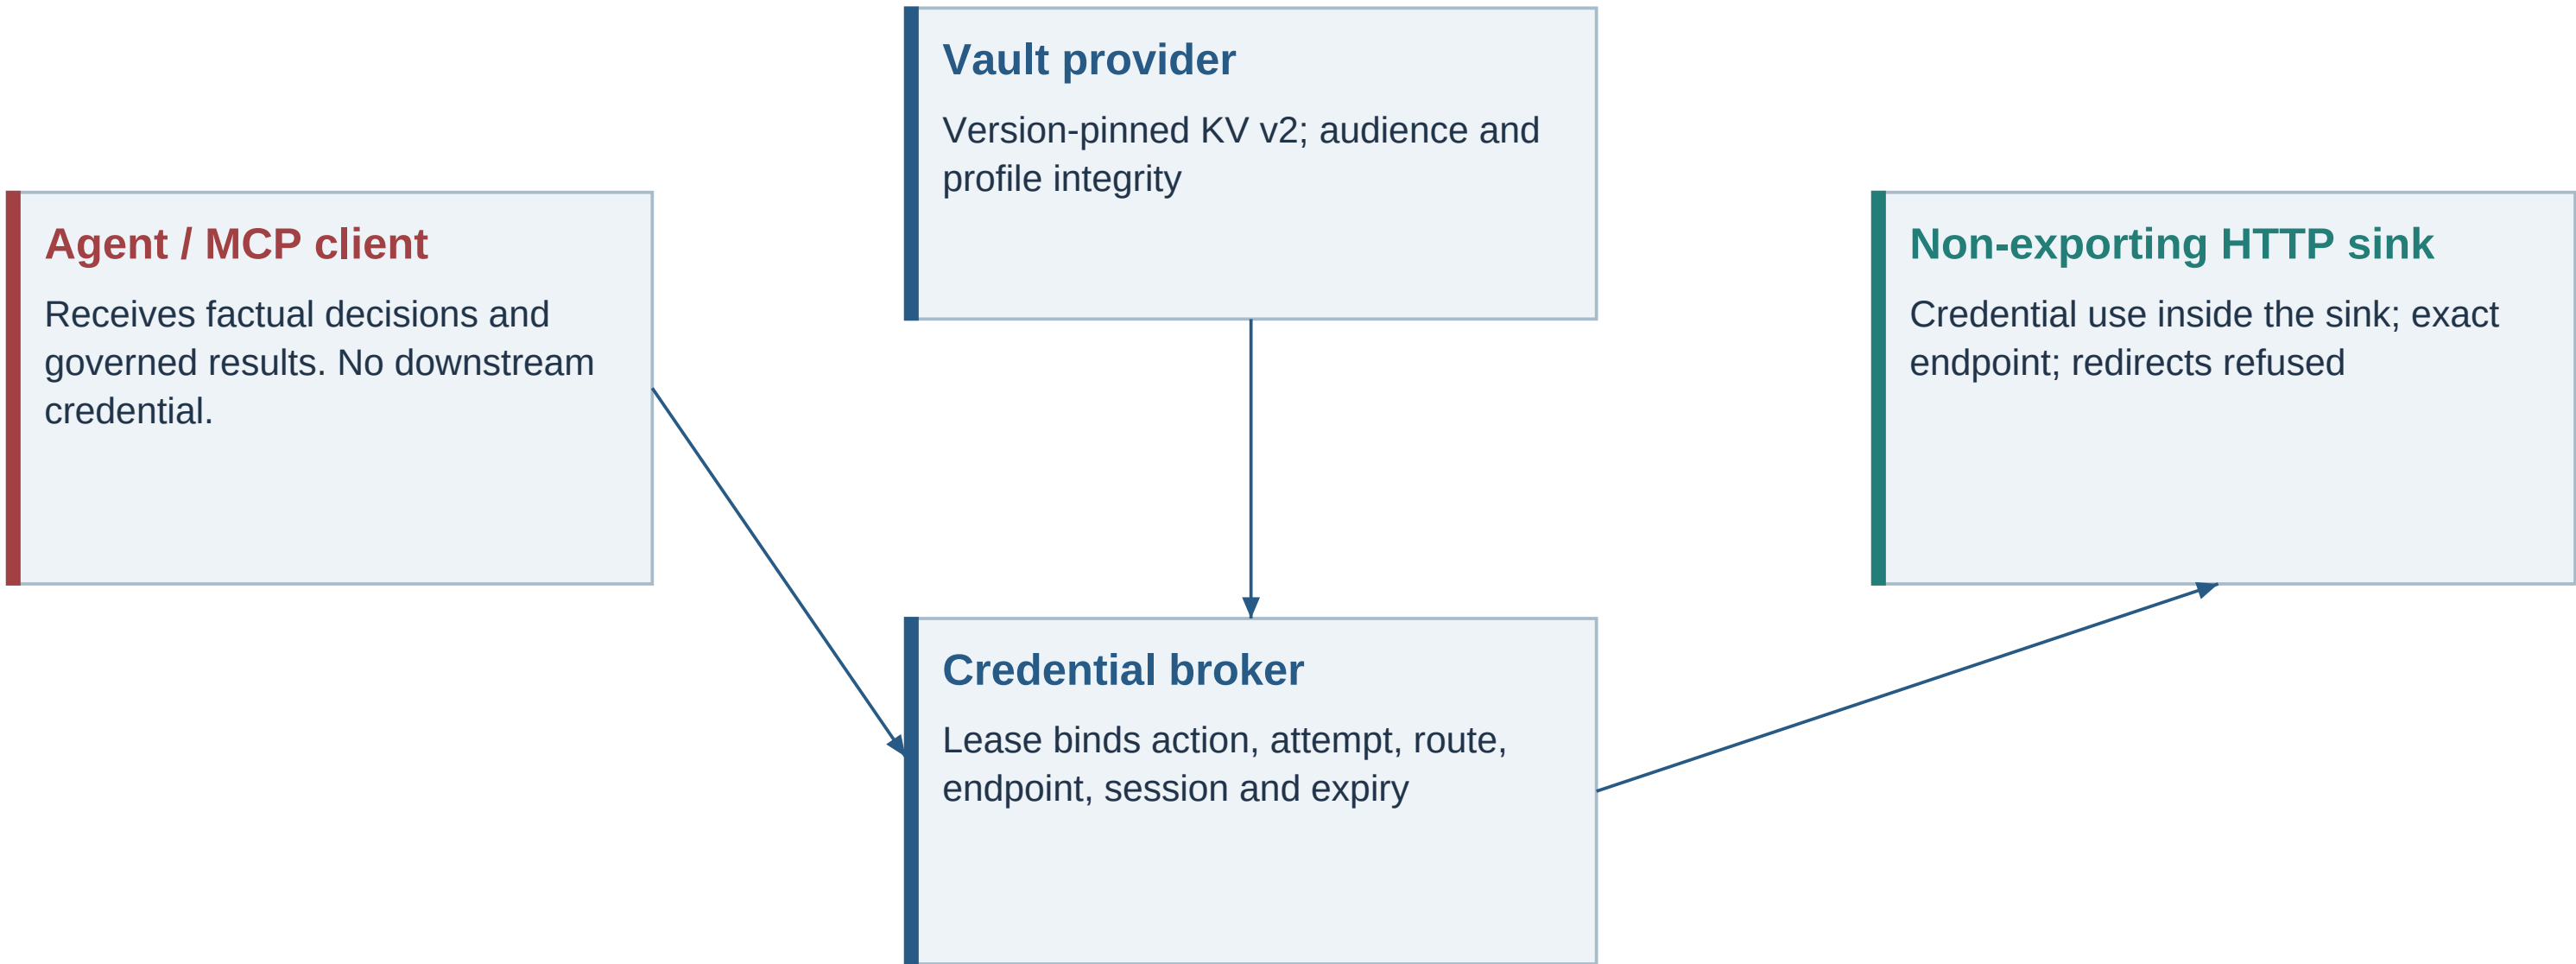

Diagram describes the implemented authority boundary. Disposable composition is not evidence of production credential custody.